Step #2: Immediately hold ALL CARRIERS liable. Please note that if the carrier is not held responsible the Insurance Company can deduct the anticipated recovery from claim payment

Step #3: Provide all required documentation listed below to Nacora Insurance Brokers as soon as possible:

- Original insurance certificate (if issued) and/or insurance declaration – proof insurance was in place
- Commercial Invoice
- Packing List
- Freight bills
- Transport Documents: (Steamship line bill of lading / master air waybill / truck bill, etc..)
- Proof of delivery – final delivery receipt noting the damages
- Copy of letter of intent sent to all carriers holding them responsible for the loss
- Carriers replies from letter of intent
- Any correspondence relating to the shipment
- Container interchange receipt – if applicable
- Unloading report – if applicable
- Photos before and after unpacking to show the manner of packaging/securing/markings and nature/extent of damages to the cargo
- Detailed statement of claim providing full description of the type of damage which occurred
- More info may be requested depending on claim situation and Underwriters review

Step #4: Once COMPLETE claims documentation is provided – claim will be settled with breakdown of claims calculation or if not an insured transport claim – declination correspondence will be sent out.
